

Dear Colleague,

Firstly, thank you for taking the time to explore the brief for this exciting Director of Nursing opportunity at Healthscope's John Fawkner Private Hospital.

At John Fawkner Private Hospital, we are dedicated to providing outstanding patient-centered care while maintaining a culture of excellence and continuous improvement. Located in Melbourne's Northern Suburbs, our hospital has been a cornerstone of quality healthcare for over 80 years, offering a range of acute medical and surgical services to the community.

The Director of Nursing role is a pivotal position within our organisation, responsible for driving operational excellence, fostering a culture of patient-centred care, and leading our skilled and adaptive team to deliver exceptional outcomes. Reporting directly to me, you will play a key role in shaping the strategic direction of the hospital and driving initiatives to enhance quality and safety.

We are seeking a dynamic leader with a proven track record of success in private hospital leadership roles. The successful candidate will have a background in nursing leadership, along with the ability to translate strategic initiatives into actionable plans, communicate effectively, and create a culture of accountability. Additionally, your experience in leading high-performance teams and your commitment to professional development will be invaluable as we strive for excellence in all aspects of our operations.

Healthscope are an employer of choice who are committed to attracting, developing, and retaining the best leadership talent to join our collegiate and high performing leadership team.

As Director of Nursing, you will have the opportunity to make a meaningful impact on the delivery of healthcare in our community and to contribute to the continued success and growth of John Fawkner Private Hospital. This role offers a rewarding career pathway with ample opportunities for professional growth and advancement within Healthscope.

I encourage you to explore this opportunity further and to consider the meaningful contributions you could make to our team. Thank you for considering a career with John Fawkner Private Hospital, and I look forward to the possibility of working together to achieve our shared goals.

Chris Davies is the Managing Director, who has the benefit of being a long-term partner to Healthscope across multiple similarly complex appointments. Chris and Alumni colleagues know us well and have a strong sense of the values and skills alignment we are seeking in our leader's.

Chris's colleague, Sarah Curran will be supporting Chris on this search.
